DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed on 07/15/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 5, 14, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Narvinger et al. (US 6,381,229) (hereafter Narvinger).

Regarding claim 1, Narvinger discloses the followings:

“a preamble portion of an access channel frame of information to be transmitted on the access channel” (Fig. 1);

“encoding data symbols in a payload portion of the access channel frame, the payload portion of the access channel frame also including pilot symbols interleaved with the data symbols. the preamble portion of the access channel frame preceding the payload portion” (Fig. 1, 2, Col. 2, lines 49-65., Col. 6, line 67 to Col. 7, line 3, Col. 8, lines 32-49).

Pilot symbol is utilized to facilitate coherent detection (col. 2, lines 48-50).

Narvinger further suggests that the preamble can also be used for coherent detection (col. 2, lines 50-51). Therefore, utilizing the preamble for coherent detection, that is, utilizing pilot symbols in the preamble, would have come at the overhead of using the pilot symbols. Thus, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to realize that "encoding pilot symbols throughout a preamble" would have been an option to assist coherent detection.

Regarding claim 5, Narvinger further teaches the claimed subject matter "wherein the pilot symbols are interspersed at regular intervals in the payload portion" in Col. 4, lines 20-21).

Regarding claims 14, 15, for the same analogy as discussed above, these claimed subject matter would have been obvious to one skilled the art as optional.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 9 is allowed.

5. Claims 2-4, 6-8, 10-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Rouplael et al. (US 6,801,564) disclose Reverse Link Correlation Filter In Wireless Communication System.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2634

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action.
